Worship Information for March and April 2013 at WSBC

Sunday, March 10, 2013
Scripture: Ephesians 4:31
Sermon: “Living a New Life without Fault-Finding”
This morning we are nearing the conclusion of our winter Sunday worship focus on Paul’s teaching in Ephesians 4. Today’s Family Matters message challenges us to master our mighty mouth muscles—our tongues. We must drop chronic criticism, develop more caring attitudes and deliver affirming and appreciative messages in word and deed.

Sunday, March 17, 2013
Scripture: Ephesians 4:32
Sermon: “Living a New Life by Forgiving Others”
This morning we conclude our winter Sunday worship focus on Paul’s teaching in Ephesians 4. Today’s Family Matters message challenges us to grapple with three basic questions: What is forgiveness? Why should I forgive? How do I forgive?

Palm Sunday, March 24, 2013
Scripture: Luke 22:31-34
Sermon: “Cock-a-doodle-do”
Welcome to Palm Sunday worship! This morning we embark on a new worship series based on various Gospel accounts. Our theme is Close Encounters of the Life-Changing Kind. During the next several weeks we’ll explore particular passages in which Jesus’ words and deeds forever changed the lives of his dedicated disciples then and now. Today’s message considers Jesus’ ministry to Peter and Peter’s response the night before our Lord’s crucifixion.

Maundy Thursday, March 28, 2013
“Twelve Men and Their Master” – Maundy Thursday Drama – 6:30 p.m.
Lifehouse Maundy Thursday Worship – Davidson Chapel - 7:45 p.m. – welcome!

Easter Sunday, March 31, 2013
Sermon: “Insomniacs on the Run”
Slow steps under the shadow of a cross. Heavy hearts bent in sadness. Reddened eyes filled with tears of grief. Then, suddenly, a new dawn and a new hope. He is not here. The tomb is empty. In fact, Jesus is alive! Death is defeated! He lives! These are among the radical discoveries made by Jesus’ disciples. This morning in our Close Encounters of the Life-Changing Kind message, we’ll consider how Jesus’ detractors endured and how Jesus’ disciples came to enjoy that first sleep-deprived Easter. We can do the same. So stay awake. No time to snooze!

Sunday, April 7, 2013
Scripture: John 20:10-18
Sermon: “Faith Resurrected”
During April our Close Encounters of the Life Changing Kind Sunday worship theme continues as we reflect on the faithful ministry and mentoring which the Risen Lord shared with his disciples. Today’s message presents the hope and compassion offered by Christ during our seasons of grief and sorrow.
Sunday, April 14, 2013
Scripture: Matthew 20:20-28
Sermon: “Helping Others Help Others”
Our Sunday worship series focuses on Close Encounters of the Life Changing Kind. This morning we’ll continue to witness at the faithful ministry and mentoring which the Risen Lord shared with his disciples. Today’s message presents the hope and compassion offered by Christ calling us to serve persons in need, and to support those who serve in his name and for his sake.

Sunday, April 21, 2013
Scripture: John 4:4-14
Sermon: “No Duel in the Sun”
During April our Close Encounters of the Life Changing Kind Sunday worship series, we are reflecting on the compassionate and faithful ministry which the Lord shared with his disciples and with those who would become his disciples. Today’s message shows the heart of Christ for drawing spiritually thirsty persons to faith and new life in him.

Sunday, April 28, 2013
Sermon: “The Ultimate Mountaintop Experience”
During Easter season Sundays at West Shore Baptist, we are exploring particular passages in which Jesus’ words and deeds forever changed the lives of his dedicated disciples then and now. Today’s Close Encounters of the Life-Changing Kind message considers Jesus’ ministry to Peter, James and John. Get your gear. We’re about to do some mountain climbing.
