FROM THE PASTOR

It will be a full year by the time we complete our ministry with you and it has been a rewarding time together. We did not come to you through the normal channels, which confirms God's definite direction to be with you. My hope and prayer is that, as we complete our time together, you have a new vision and direction for the future of West Shore Baptist.

Churches do go through cycles, which is normally due to losing their vision and their focus. They become in-grown even though the harvest field is still ripe all around them. Death happens in each person when the spirit leaves the body. The same principle holds true in a church. When it is not doing what God has called it to do, which is focusing on reaching people for Christ, the Holy Spirit leaves that family and it eventually dies.

It is the opposite when a church family sees people come to Christ! There is excitement and vibrancy and joy that runs through the body of the congregation. When we first joined you, I urged you to start praying for someone who is not a believer. That is where it begins. Through the power of prayer, God begins to move. He is just waiting for us to take the initiative. This is how evangelism works today in our culture – personal contact. It no longer happens just because the doors of the church are open.

The second imperative for the Holy Spirit to work is unity. He will not work where there is division or fragmentation. It has taken a whole year for this to happen, but I see we are coming together and rebuilding that basic spirit as we move into the summer months. It is much greater than moving our two services together, it is the spirit and attitude of the church body.

As Pastor Kelly comes to motivate and mobilize you all, I pray that you will get behind her and see great things happen to the glory of God. The future is as bright as the promises of God.

Pastor Paul

A Message From the Associate Pastor

... if you want to live a more sinless life, focus your energies on knowing Christ, loving Him, praying to Him, and reading His Word.

One of the great truths I have discovered over the past few years is that sin often, if not always, finds its root in a distrust of God and His commands. Let me explain: I believe that at the heart of every sinful action lies a deadly fabrication. Every conscious sinful choice is founded upon the same incorrect belief. Namely, that the sinful action, whatever it may be, will bring more joy than obedience to God. Though we might never think of it like this or frame it in this manner, it is true. We sin because we believe it will bring us more pleasure, happiness, and satisfaction than following God will.

Imagine the foolishness of someone burning their own eyes out for fun. Nobody would do that! Why? Because life with eyes is clearly more enjoyable than life without. Yet, when it comes to sin – which leads to far worse than an eyeless life – we gladly partake. Evidencing that we believe that life with a particular sin will be more enjoyable than life without. We sin under the illusion that somehow we will become more satisfied living in God's world if we disobey God. This is illogical. God has created the rules in His universe, not to be a buzzkill, but to bring us joy! God has designed His law so that in obedience to it, our lives flourish. And when we sin, we say with our actions that God's law is not as enjoyable as disobedience to it. At the root of sin lies an utter irrationality that commissions us to drink poison because it looks appetizing. We sin because we do not believe God when He said that the wages of sin is death. We sin because we do not believe that God knows best how to make us happy.

So what is the solution to sin? If the root of sin is a distrust of God, the primary solution to sin cannot be to simply stop doing the sin. Rather, the primary solution to sin is to find more joy in God. To pursue God more deeply will result in a greater trust in Him and His ways which will manifest itself in our holy, sinless, living. The more we are satisfied in God, the less we will seek sin. The more we trust Him, the less we think that we know better how to achieve joy. The more we know Christ, the more we will kill sin. Christian, if you want to live a more sinless life, focus your energies on knowing Christ, loving Him, praying to Him, and reading His Word. It is in Him that there is freedom from sin.

Soli Deo Gloria,

Associate Pastor Greg Kabakjian

From the Diaconate Board

By Deacon Hilary Art Nixon, Ph.D.

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved" (Acts 16:31). Saving faith is simple yet spiritually and profoundly complex. The Protestant Reformation grounded itself on Habakkuk 2:4, "the just shall live by his faith" (KJV). But look at the various ways this phrase is translated: "The righteous shall live by his faith" (NASB) or faithfulness (NIV), "by his steadfastness liveth" (Young's Literal Translation).

Knowledge: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved" presents several facts which belief grasps and holds onto. "Saved" is one word but fully understood means: 1) you are a sinner (Rom. 3:23); 2) you deserve death (Rom. 6:23) and eternal hellfire (Rev. 20:13-15); 3) but Jesus, the Christ or Messiah, became your Savior because he bore the penalty of your sin with his death at Calvary; and 4) Jesus has become Lord or Master of your life because he arose again from the dead and is alive and is actively engaging in a personal relationship with the believer. The deeper you grow in your faith the more you understand, obey and lean on (or trust) in the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. "Clearly no one who relies on the law is justified before God, because 'the righteous will live by faith'" (Gal. 3:11). But faith is more than facts you can recite. "You believe that God is one. You do well; the demons also believe and shudder" (James 2:19). Demons, fallen angels, know there is their creator God. They rightly fear him but they live in rebellion. James rebukes this intellectualism which is not genuine saving faith. "As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead" (James 2:26).

Power: Our faith does not rest on human wisdom, but on God's power (1 Cor. 2:5). It is the Holy Spirit who convicts us of our sin (John 16:8). Have you humbled yourself before God, admitting He has the right to send you to hell forever? If you haven't swallowed this poison pill to self, you haven't found true faith. In true conversion God makes us into a new creature (2 Cor. 5:27); we are born again by the Holy Spirit (John 3:8). We are "born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God" John 1:13. Christ came to sanctify us (Heb. 13:12) which is to make us holy in Christ's image (Romans 8:29). Mystical union describes God's indwelling in the believer (John 14:23, 18-23). This explains our new capacity to have power over sin and death (Romans 6:1-10) and ability to put down the old nature (Col. 3:1-17) and produce fruit of the spirit (Gal. 5:22-26). "Continue to work out your salvation [sanctification] with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose" Phil. 2:12-13. So God regenerates, dwells inside, empowers and sanctifies. The true believer repents (turns from sin Acts 3:19) and exercises life-long faithfulness to his Lord and Savior (Hab. 2:4; Gal. 3:11). Caution: on judgment day some will be surprised - God's power worked through them to prophesy, cast out demons, and do miracles, but Christ says, "I never knew [covenanted with] you. Depart from me, you workers of lawlessness (Matthew 7:22-23). Charismatic empowerment gifts include gifts of wisdom, knowledge, faith, healings, miracles, prophecy, tongues, interpretation of tongues (1 Cor. 12:8-11) and the "prayer of faith" (James 5:15 divine healing - not faith healing, not hope healing) - all involve God's miraculous power channeling through the individual. But that power is no guarantee of saving faith (Heb. 6:4-6).

Perseverance: Steadfast, life-long trust in and obedience to God is the hallmark of saving faith. From God's perspective those he foreloved (foreknew), he elected (1 Peter 1:2). These are predestined to be conformed to the image of his son (Romans 8:29). Note: in Romans 11:1-7, Israel is saved not according to their actions (which God pre-knew) rather the remnant is saved according to God's election (v.5). Those who were chosen found grace, the rest were hardened (v.7). So God's foreknowledge is His predetermination to (fore) love His elect. From the human perspective, assurance of salvation comes from steadfast belief in Christ and growth in Christ (Phil. 3:12-14). God makes our feet like the deer (Hab. 3:19) - sure footed on the path of righteousness.

In summary, the just will live by faith. Faith is not a creed - though the Apostle's Creed summarizes the doctrines of our faith. Faith is not good works - though faith without good works is dead. Faith is life-long faithfulness to God who is our Savior and Lord. Faith is living in a vibrant relationship with God. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you live justly by trusting in God at your every breath, thought and step.

Someone has written these beautiful words. It's a must read. Try to understand the deep meaning of it. They are like the ten commandments to follow in life all of the time!

1. Prayer is not a "spare wheel" that you pull out when in trouble, but it is a "steering wheel" that directs the right path throughout the journey.
2. So why is a Car's WINDSHIELD so large & the Rear View Mirror so small? Because our PAST is not as important as our FUTURE. So, look ahead and move on.
3. Friendship is like a BOOK. It takes a few minutes to burn, but it takes years to write.
4. All things in life are temporary. If going well, enjoy it, they will not last forever. If going wrong, don't worry, they can't last long either.
5. Old Friends are Gold! New Friends are Diamond! If you get a Diamond, don't forget the Gold! Because to hold a Diamond, you always need a Base of Gold!
6. Often when we lose hope and think this is the end, GOD smiles from above and says, "Relax, sweetheart, it's just a bend, not the end!"
7. When GOD solves your problems, you have faith in HIS abilities; when GOD doesn't solve your problems HE has faith in your abilities.
8. A blind person asked St. Anthony, "Can there be anything worse than losing eye sight?" He replied, "Yes, losing your vision!"
9. When you pray for others, God listens to you and blesses them, and sometimes, when you are safe and happy, remember that someone has prayed for you.
10. WORRYING does not take away tomorrow's TROUBLES, it takes away today's PEACE.

If you really enjoy this, please pass on to others. It may just brighten someone's day... Live simply. Love generously. Care deeply. Speak kindly. Leave the rest to God.

2018 One Great Hour of Sharing

This year's OGHs offering theme is "More Than We Can Imagine," based on Ephesians 3:20, where Paul states that God is able to "accomplish abundantly more than we can ask or imagine." You prayed, stood with, and gave to people and needs from next-door neighbors to global neighbors you may never meet. Your generous gifts help people envision recovery and new life, strengthened by the assurance that God is working in, through, and beyond us.

Our OGHs offering is being received through June 10, 2018. The Mission Board has set a goal of $5,000. Please give generously as you are able.

WSBC has ranked #8 in Mission giving for 2017 by American Baptist Churches USA with receipts totaling $44,455. Well done!
